Instructions for Study Plan

Students must submit their study plan within the first 13 units of graduate coursework.

General Instructions

Step 1) Students need to download a blank study plan form as an editable PDF file from the department website (cee.fullerton.edu).

Step 2) To fill out your study plan, you must decide your focus area. There are four focus areas offered in the MS degree in Civil Engineering which are Construction Engineering & Management; Geotechnical Engineering; Structural Engineering; Water Resources Engineering.

Step 3) To get MSCE degree, students should complete total 30-unit of graduation work (Ten 3-unit courses / Eight 3-unit courses + 6-unit Thesis).

Instructions for Study Plan Form

1. Fill out your name, student ID No. (CWID), date, address, home phone & work/cell phone No.
2. The portion of pre-classification requirements needs to be completed by the CEE department based on the information from the ECS Graduate and International Admissions Office.
3. The writing requirement section needs to be filled out based on the following guidelines. Students are expected to meet the writing requirements within the first 9 units of graduate coursework through one of the following ways:
 - a. EWP (Examination in Writing Proficiency)
 - b. ENGL 301 or 360 class (can't be included in a study plan)
 - c. EGCE 470, 534, 567, 573, 597 or 598 (can be included in a study plan)
 - d. A minimum score of 4 on the GRE Writing Assessment Test
4. For the Civil Engineering Courses, five core courses must be included in the study plan of each student according to his/her focus area. You can find the list of core courses for each focus area from the department website (cee.fullerton.edu).
5. For the Other Courses, students can put five elective courses which can be in their focus area or other focus areas.
6. Students take the Thesis option; they need to put total 6-unit for two semesters.
7. Students need to submit their study plan draft to the Graduate Advisor and finalize their study plan according to the comments from the Graduate Advisor.
