The Division of Information Technology plays a significant role at Cal State Fullerton. We understand the challenges that face our faculty, staff, and students and we continuously strive to produce a higher quality of services designed to meet the expectations of the campus community.

We have partnered with other divisions to fully integrate technology into regular campus operations and to ensure that the services, equipment, and software applications we provide are custom to the needs of each area.

The Division of IT is dedicated to Diversity, Equity, and Inclusion (DEI). We have set forth diversity goals, which are constantly monitored and evaluated, to improve our practices in managing DEI. Our individual experiences and stories build the structure that is academic and personal excellence. By talking with, listening to, and sharing stories, we can better understand the world around us. Together as a community, we use this knowledge to spur innovation, transformation, and create a better tomorrow.

As you browse through this IT Guide, we encourage you to take advantage of some or all of the services available to you.

TitanWare is Cal State Fullerton’s comprehensive technology ecosystem designed to advance student success. Our goal is to provide students with the solutions needed to thrive academically and in the workplace.

At the center of this ecosystem is the laptop. Many faculty expect students to bring a laptop to class every day to leverage our technology-infused teaching & learning ecosystem in and out of the classroom.

Laptops for Student Success

Students have the following options to acquire a laptop:

- Use a laptop they currently own
- Purchase from the TitanShops bookstore at a discounted price and with payment plan options
- Purchase their own laptop based on CSUF recommended laptop specifications
- Borrow a laptop from campus
  - Long-term (semester), based on financial need
  - Short-term (48hrs), available to all

TitanWare resources include:

- Tech Tools
- Available Software
- Cybersecurity
- Help Desk Support
- Wi-Fi
- Computer Labs and Printing
Innovation labs with AR/VR
Campus ID Card
Digital Print Services

The Interdisciplinary College Collaboration Space was designed for students to use college-specific tools and software.

Located on the 2nd floor of Pollak Library North, the Interdisciplinary College Collaboration Space is an area for students to utilize the technology they need for their majors.

This space gives students the unique opportunity to work outside of the classroom and gain insight from their peers. The lab provides specialized software for student access allowing collaboration between colleges in one space. Each college space includes a 65” Samsung display, with Apple TV (AirPlay), Microsoft wireless display (MiraCast), mobile whiteboards and comfortable collaboration seating.

Campus Computer Labs
Computers are also available on the first, second, and fourth floors of Pollak Library, North. Visit it.fullerton.edu/students/computerlabs for more information.
Virtual Labs

Connect to high performance computers and access specialized software through the Virtual Labs. These virtual computer labs help faculty, staff and students utilize necessary software remotely. You can use a Mac or Windows computer to connect. Search by your college and select the virtual lab that hosts the software you want to use.

Connect to Splashtop, AWS App Stream & the Virtual Computer Lab (VCL) to access these solutions, virtually

- Maya
- AutoCAD
- ToonBoom
- Adobe CC
