

UNDERGRADUATES, THIS IS FOR YOU! APPLY TO PRESENT AT THE 2021 National Conferences on Undergraduate Research (NCUR) Virtual Conference

APRIL

12-14, 2021

The first 60 undergraduates who submit an abstract by December 1, 2020 and are accepted to present will be funded by the Office of Research and Sponsored Projects (ORSP). Present at NCUR for FREE ($100 value!)

The NCUR conference is a fun and welcoming event for first-time presenters from ALL disciplines (ARTS too!). Check out the details on the Student Resources website. Submissions are open!

Important Deadlines

December 1, 2020:
Abstract submission deadline
April 12-14, 2021:
NCUR Virtual Conference

NCUR Abstract Preparation Zoom Workshop Link

November 18, Wednesday 4:30 PM - 5:30 PM

Dr. Terri Patchen, Student Creative Activities and Research (SCAR) Faculty Fellow will provide winning tips for abstract development to help you apply!

Eligibility
ALL CSUF undergraduates
born in the U.S. or international students are eligible!

For more information about NCUR, scan the QR code to the right, or visit Student Resources - NCUR

