

Virtual California Forum for Diversity in Graduate Education

Monday, October 12 – Friday, October 16, 2020
3 days of Sessions ranging from 9:00 am-6:00 pm
2 days of recruiters especially wanting to meet YOU

The Forum is an all week event designed to acquaint students from underrepresented groups with the academic and career opportunities associated with advanced study in a wide range of disciplines.

Open to: Sophomores | Juniors | Seniors | Master's Candidates
 (minimum GPA of 3.0 recommended for all students)*

The forum will offer workshops on

- How to Select, Apply to and Prepare For Graduate School
 - Demystifying the GRE
 - The Relation of the Master's Degree to The PhD
 - How to Select, Apply To & Prepare For Graduate School
 - Role of Undergraduate Research in Graduate Admissions
 - How to Write a Winning Statement of Purpose
 - Successful Strategies for Acquiring Strong Letters of Recommendation
 - Keys to Success and Survival in Grad School
 - Identifying Challenges and Finding Community for AB540 and Undocumented Students
 - How To Finance Your Graduate Education and subject specific workshops on

- Physical Sciences/Math
 - Education; Arts and Humanities
 - Life Sciences
 - Social Sciences
 - Engineering & Computer Science

Plus! Graduate Recruitment Fair

Featuring 200+ recruiters from across the nation

Register now — space is limited!

Email ADDRESS for registration information.