NRCAL HIGHLIGHT

Anaheim Union High School District

This year, Anaheim Union High School District (AUHSD) celebrates 61 senior students who will receive the prestigious State Seal of Biliteracy on their diplomas for the completion of the requirements in Korean and English language. Two schools in AUHSD offer Korean language classes: Oxford Academy and Kennedy High School. Students in these programs learn the Korean language and are immersed in the rich culture of Korea through field trips, community partnerships (Nongshim Noodle Company and Hallelujah Tae Kwon Do), and the celebration of Korean holidays.

PROFESSIONAL OPPORTUNITIES

Korean Cultural Center Los Angeles

The Korean Cultural Center in Los Angeles welcomes everyone to experience the rich traditions and history of Korea through specialized programs, sponsored events, films, art exhibitions, multiple learning sources and much more. Entrance and parking is free. We offer free field trips for school groups (1st grade and above) and we cover the cost of ONE bus per school (up to $350) for any California Public School. Your field trip will last approximately 1.5 hours and will include:

- video presentation,
- tour of the Center's Museum and Art Gallery to see a variety of crafts and relics from the Joseon Dynasty,
- visit to the Korea Center for a look at Korea's entertainment culture, including online games, music videos, animation and K-pop,
- 3D puzzle of a cultural icon of Korea for each student.

To prepare your students, visit <http://www.korea.net/AboutKorea/Korea-at-a-Glance/Facts-about-Korea> or go to www.korea.net. An alternate site with activities to learn about Korea is <http://www.rainbowkids.com/HTMLFiles.aspx?page=KoreaAct>
