

Resolution Commending the Students, Faculty, Staff and Administrators of California State University Fullerton During the COVID-19 Global Pandemic of 2020

WHEREAS: the novel Coronavirus outbreak has disrupted all aspects of faculty, student, administrators, and staff lives in their teaching, learning, leading and families; therefore, be it

RESOLVED: That the Academic Senate (AS) commends the extraordinary resilience demonstrated by CSUF students, faculty, staff, custodians, security, law enforcement, other support staff, and administrators in response to the COVID-19 global pandemic of 2020, which has substantially changed the conditions where we live and work, teach and learn by transforming the day-to-day operations of our campus in ways almost unthinkable just a few months ago; and be it further

RESOLVED: That the AS acknowledges that the CSUF faculty, staff, and administrators have worked quickly and tirelessly, with considerable attention to collaboration, empathy, and flexibility, to protect our campus and to ensure that our students continue to make progress towards developing the knowledge and skill attainment represented by successful course and degree completion; and be it further

RESOLVED: That the AS recognizes that the more than 40,000 students have demonstrated a great deal of patience, resilience, and flexibility while understanding that their CSUF professors and staff have worked with them to make the transition from face-to-face to virtual teaching, with other student support and advising; and be it further

RESOLVED: That the AS also recognizes that CSUF students have shown amazing fortitude in light of the postponement and/or cancellation of some of the campus' most memorable traditions, including participation in study abroad programs, art exhibits, music and theatre performances, graduation recitals, athletic competitions, graduation recognition ceremonies, and spring commencement ceremonies; and be it further

RESOLVED: That the AS appreciates the flexible and resilient members of CSUF and their families, who have demonstrated individual responsibility and taken important timely collective action to protect the well-being of our campus and community constituents; and be it further

RESOLVED: That the AS publicly thanks the CSUF students, faculty, staff, custodians, security, law enforcement, other support staff, and administrators for their determination and leadership that will help us to navigate safely through these uncharted circumstances and this epochal time in our history during COVID-19 pandemic; and be it further
