

Resolution on Range Elevations for AY 2021-2022

- Whereas: At its February 17, 2022 meeting the CSU Fullerton Academic Senate passed an emergency resolution on procedures for range elevations due to the timing and terms of the Collective Bargaining Agreement (CBA) and its ratification; and
- Whereas: The compressed timeline is considerably shorter than past campus practice and policy, which puts pressure on both applicants and reviewers; and
- Whereas: The CBA allows, and other campuses have adopted, a fall application deadline for range elevations retroactive to AY2021-22; and
- Whereas: As announced subsequent to February 17 resolution, the application deadline ends the Friday before the spring break; therefore, be it
- Resolved: The Academic Senate of CSUF recommends that the Office of the Provost establish a range elevation process and timeline that allows for application and review in the fall semester of 2022 for range elevations that will be retroactive to AY2021-22; and be it further
- Resolved: That applicants seeking to meet the Spring 2022 deadline may request, and department chairs may grant, requests for the Interfolio system to remain open until April 3, 2022 or a date mutually agreed to by the chair and the applicant; and be it finally
- Resolved: That chairs shall generally grant such deadline extension requests so long as workflows can be scheduled in a way that allows the certification of file completeness by the April 4, 2022 deadline.
