

Resolution Honoring Senator Stambough's Service and Leadership to CSU Fullerton Academic Senate

- Whereas: This marathon meeting is Steve Stambough's last meeting as a Senator of the Cal State Fullerton Academic Senate; and
- Whereas: Senator Stambough has served with dignity during his 14 years as a senator through his leadership as Chair of the CSUF Academic Senate for three terms and two terms as Vice Chair; and
- Whereas: Senator Stambough's political prowess has improved the body's understanding of national politics; and
- Whereas: Senator Stambough contributed to the ASCSU as Senator for six years and contributed to the CSU system with meaningful resolutions and insights about G.E. requirements; and
- Whereas: Senator Stambough committed to governance in education as Director and Board member of the Cal State DC Scholars Program for many years; and
- Whereas: Senator Stambough helped shape the CSUF leadership team through participation in dozens of administrative and Dean searches; and
- Whereas: Senator Stambough was always recognizable by his unwavering take charge presence softened by his hand around a cup of coffee while sporting a never-ending set of stylish hats; and
- Whereas: Senator Stambough never met a Constitutional amendment that should not be approved or a University Policy Statement which required no revision; and
- Whereas: Senator Stambough was never able to convince the Executive Committee to ask "What is the meaning of life, the universe, and everything?" as an Academic Senate Question; and
- Whereas: Senator Stambough is known throughout Titan land as a larger-than-life force of nature on the basketball court, especially in the annual faculty/staff vs. students' basketball game, where he can be found picking and rolling, dribbling (sometimes literally) and driving, and sacrificing his Adonis body for the team; and
- Whereas: Senator Stambough has been and always will be a tireless advocate for the Titan D.C. Scholars program, and in so doing has mentored, molded, and motivated countless future leaders of our nation to marginalize the meanderings of likes of Trump, Santos, and Taylor; and
- Whereas: Senator Stambough aka Academic Senate Chair extraordinaire, Robert's Rules of Order bender, debate ender, question caller, gavel banger and general magnificent meeting manager, cuts a never-forgotten figure in our Academic Senate, whether as leader or back bencher, motion maker or fence mender, shared governance guru or benevolent dictator of discussion; and

- Whereas: Senator Stambough is always ready for a friend in need, is (according to Val) still a husband in training, and is universally recognized as a true servant leader who leads with deeds, collaborates with collegiality, and is always willing to lift a glass with gusto; and
- Whereas: Numerous Academic Senate Executive committees have wondered when Steve's D.C. connections will finally pay off with a large earmark to create the Stambough Baseball and Shared Governance facility; and
- Whereas: Senator Stambough continues to ace all pop quizzes that demonstrate his detailed memory of UPS documents, and in depth understanding of by-laws; and
- Whereas: Senator Stambough has spent years in DC setting up DC Scholars Program, he has yet to make the same kind of friends that certain Supreme Court justices have; and
- Whereas: Senator Stambough has more mugs than all of the campus Starbucks, the dorms, and the Ceramics Department combined; and
- Whereas: Senator Stambough thoroughly tested our knowledge in Constitutional Jeopardy and engaged the Titan community in celebration of Constitution Day; and
- Whereas: Senator Stambough notoriously never backs down from singing karaoke for charity if it sends just one more Titan to D.C.; and
- Whereas: Senator Stambough loves CSUF Baseball because they have been in the post-season more than the Padres have; and
- Whereas: No team has a more loyal fan than do the LA Chargers in Senator Stambough; therefore, be it
- Resolved: That Senator Stambough will always be welcome back for a fresh Senate cookie and coffee with friends anytime; and be it finally
- Resolved: That Senator Stambough fingerprints have reached to all aspects of campus making him forever remembered and treasured.
