

Resolution for Dr. Emily Bonney

- Whereas: Oscar Wilde reminds us that sarcasm is “the highest form of intelligence” (but what would he know?); and
- Whereas: Dr. Bonney will finally have the peace she deserves. No more having to read the poor grammar and terrible use of punctuation, especially apostrophes, in emails from colleagues; and
- Whereas: In the grand tradition of Senate chairs and Michael Corleone (not that there’s any similarities between academia and organized crime), just when she thought she was out as Dean of the Library, we pulled her back in to be Academic Appeals Coordinator; and
- Whereas: Emily has a long history as a campus “trouble shooter,” called upon to solve far reaching issues ranging from HRDI Academic expert to stepping in at a last minute as Dean of the Library; and
- Whereas: Emily is a bonafide “WSCUC-teer”, who helped the university not only survive but thrive through the WSCUC processes 3 times in a row; and
- Whereas: Emily’s mastery of herding cats, evidenced by many seen and unseen scars, facilitated her success, in the library, the senate, HRDI, and the cantankerous constitution committee; and
- Whereas: During her time as Library Dean she deftly advanced the annual “Peeps” diorama contest, shepherding such entries as Alice in Peeperland, Peepcy Jackson & The Olympeepians, Pride and Peepjudice, and Do Androids Dream of Electric Peeps; and
- Whereas: Emily served as Senate Chair for two years and Executive Committee for four years; and
- Whereas: Emily has earned highest respect for her no-nonsense and competent approach to matters; and
- Whereas: “I drink and I know things” was not just a quote from Tyrion Lannister; therefore be it
- Resolved: The Academic Executive Committee, Academic Senate, faculty, staff, administrators and students of CSUF express their deepest gratitude to Emily Bonney for her outstanding leadership; and be it further
- Resolved: That Emily Bonney will always be welcome back for fresh Senate cookies and coffee with friends anytime.
